

TSUNAMI DISASTER:

SARID'S RELIEF FUND

(www.sarid.net)

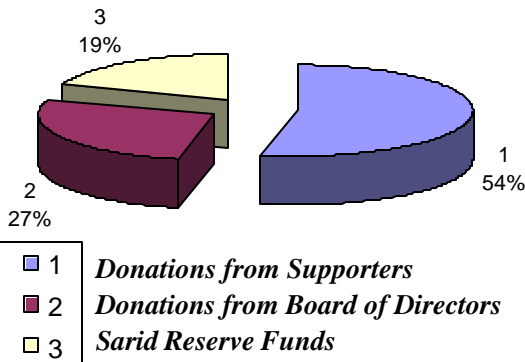

Days after a devastating earthquake and deadly tsunamis ravaged South Asia, more than 200,000 people are dead and millions are homeless.

In Sri Lanka, the toll in the tsunami catastrophe has risen to over 30,000, while an estimated 50,000 people are still missing. Over 50,000 people are injured in the deadly tidal wave attack while millions have been rendered homeless. SARID's long-term presence in Sri Lanka has allowed us to mount a coordinated response that includes food, water purification tablets, shelter materials, provisions, and basic medical supplies.
